Reading

- Capricorn was rising at your birth, which makes Saturn the ruler of your chart and sets the tone everything else is read against. An earth sign of the movable kind, it gives a temperament that is disciplined, realistic and prepared to wait — a climber who measures progress in decades.
- Your life moves in initiatives. You begin things readily, and the difficulty is finishing rather than starting.
- Saturn, your chart ruler, sits in the 12th house in Sagittarius. That places the centre of gravity of your life invested in what is out of sight: foreign places, seclusion, research, or the inner life. Ordinary visible achievement satisfies you less than it should.
- Its condition there is workable: in Sagittarius it acts effectively but takes its colour from its surroundings. The ruler of your self is neither reinforced nor obstructed; what it does depends heavily on the company it keeps and on the period running.
- You also have Rahu in the first house itself, sitting directly on the personality. Rahu adds ambition, an unconventional presence and an appetite for what is out of reach.
- Looking at what falls on the ascendant from elsewhere: Jupiter aspects the lagna, which protects it — you are given the benefit of the doubt more often than you notice; Ketu aspects it, which hardens it — there is pressure on the self from outside, and it has made you more capable than a comfortable chart would have.

Physique

Nakshatra	Dhanishta

Notes

- The earth quality of Capricorn rising tends toward a solid, well-set build that holds condition and tires slowly.
- The ascendant rises in Dhanishta, which refines the general picture — the finer features of manner and appearance follow that nakshatra rather than the sign.

Strengths

- The Capricorn signature itself is the asset here: the temperament is consistent, and consistency compounds over a life even where no single placement stands out.

Challenges

- Rahu in the first house — adds ambition, an unconventional presence and an appetite for what is out of reach, which others read more sharply than you intend it.

Stones

Saturn

Role	Life Stone
Rules house	1
Purpose	strengthens the ruler of your ascendant — vitality, confidence and the self
Advised	Yes

Verdict
Advised. Saturn is neither reinforced nor obstructed by its sign, so it takes its results from its surroundings — which is exactly the condition a gemstone is classically used to settle.

Venus

Role	Lucky Stone
Rules house	5
Purpose	strengthens the ruler of your 5th — intelligence, creativity, children and the luck you make by acting
Advised	Yes

Verdict
Advised, and this is the placement it helps most. Venus is debilitated in Virgo, so the house it rules operates below its capacity; the stone supplies what the sign denies it. Start with the substitute for six weeks before committing to the primary stone. Note also that Venus is the yogakaraka of your chart — the best-placed functional role any planet can hold here. Of the three stones, wear this one first.

Mercury

Role	Fortune Stone
Rules house	9
Purpose	strengthens the ruler of your 9th, the house of bhagya — fortune, teachers, belief and the support that arrives unasked
Advised	Yes

Verdict
Advised, though less urgently. Mercury is already exalted in Virgo and functioning well; the stone sharpens an existing strength rather than repairing a weakness. A smaller stone is sufficient.

Reasoning

- Your 9th house — bhagya, the classical house of fortune — is ruled by Mercury. Of all the remedial stones, the one tied to the 9th lord is the one traditionally worn for luck rather than for capability: it works on what comes to you, not on what you produce.
- In your chart Mercury sits in the 9th house in Virgo, which is where the fortune actually arrives from. Read that house's significations as the channel — that is the direction support tends to come from in your life.
- Mercury is exalted, so the 9th house is already well supported. The stone is worn to maintain rather than to repair, and a modest weight is enough.

Protocol

- Buy natural and untreated. A heated or filled stone is a decorative object; classical practice holds that it carries no remedial effect at all, and most retail stones are treated.
- Have it certified by weight and origin before purchase, and keep the certificate.
- Energise before first wear: soak overnight in raw milk or Ganga jal, then recite the planet's mantra for the count given, on the planet's own weekday.
- Wear it on the day and finger given, during the hour stated, and set it so the stone touches the skin — an enclosed setting is ornamental only.
- Give any new stone six to eight weeks before judging it, and stop immediately if sleep, temper or health worsen consistently after starting it.
- Never wear two stones for planets that are enemies to each other — most commonly blue sapphire alongside ruby or pearl.
- None of this replaces a consultation. A stone is chosen for a chart AND for a moment in that person's life; the chart half is what this page can compute.
