Rajju

Same cord	No

3 Score

Maximum	3

Explained
Rajju groups the 27 nakshatras into five cords, each governing a part of the body and an area of married life. The classical rule is that the partners should NOT fall in the same cord.

Reading
The two charts fall in different Rajjus (Siro (Head) and Kantha (Neck)), which is the favourable configuration. Each partner's strong area covers the other's weaker one.

Vedha

Present	No

2 Score

Maximum	2

Explained
Vedha means obstruction. Fifteen nakshatra pairs are held to be mutually obstructing, and a match falling on one of those pairs is classically refused however well the rest of the chart scores.

Reading	Chitra and Shravana do not form a Vedha pair, so this classical objection does not apply to the match.

Vetoes

Vetoes 1

Koota	Bhakoot
Score	0
Max	7

Meaning
Bhakoot scores zero, which classically indicates an adverse Moon-sign axis between the two charts. It is traditionally read against prosperity and the longevity of the household rather than against compatibility of temperament.

Cancellation
Classical practice also recognises specific cancellations for this — same Moon sign with different nakshatras, the same nakshatra lord on both sides, or the lords of the two Moon signs being mutual friends. Whether one applies here depends on placements this scoring does not weigh, and it is the single most common reason a match rejected on paper is approved in person.

Cancellations

Groom	—

Bride

Condition	Explanation
Moon-Mars Conjunction	Mars is in conjunction with Moon (1st house from Moon), which cancels the Kuja Dosha.
Mars in Kendra from Moon	Mars in 1 house from Moon is in Kendra position, which cancels the Kuja Dosha.

Mutual	—

Reading
Mangal dosha appears in the girl's chart (Mars counted from the Lagna, Moon and Venus) and not the other, which is the configuration the rule actually addresses. Whether it is cancelled depends on exact placements — Mars in its own or exaltation sign, the involvement of Saturn or Jupiter, or the age of the parties — and that is a judgement rather than a calculation. It is the single item on this report most worth putting to an astrologer.

Personality

Notes
- Emotionally, the Moon signs are Virgo and Capricorn. Two earth signs — stable, practical and durable. The risk is inertia rather than conflict.
- In outward manner the ascendants are Capricorn and Capricorn. Two earth signs — stable, practical and durable. The risk is inertia rather than conflict.

Verdict

Level	Needs review

> There is more than the score to work through here

Body
The Dashakoot total is 58.5% and the Ashtakoot total 52.8%, but Bhakoot at zero and Mangal dosha on one side only sit outside the point system. Classical practice treats those as capable of overriding an otherwise good total — and also recognises specific cancellations for them that depend on placements this scoring does not weigh. That judgement is what an astrologer is actually for, and it is the reason a match refused on paper is regularly approved in person.

Blockers

Bhakoot at zero | Mangal dosha on one side only
