Planets

Sun

House	10

If well placed

Sun in the tenth house is one of the best placements for career success and worldly authority. The native will be famous, respected and will hold positions of great power. He will succeed in government service, politics or leadership roles. He will have a distinguished career and will be well-known in his field of work.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be sudden fall from position, conflicts with superiors and government troubles. The native may be excessively ambitious and may harm others in pursuit of status. Career setbacks and public humiliation are possible when the Sun is severely afflicted.

Moon

House	9

If well placed
Moon in the ninth house gives a fortunate and blessed life, spiritual inclination and a devoted and pious father. The native will be devoted to religion, will travel to sacred places and will succeed in higher learning and philosophical pursuits. Fortune smiles on the native through dharmic living.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be conflicts with the father, changing and inconsistent religious beliefs and emotional instability in matters of faith and philosophy. The native may be superstitious rather than genuinely spiritual.

Mars

House	5

If well placed
Mars in the fifth house gives competitive intelligence, dynamic creativity and success in sports, speculation and creative fields. The native will be passionate, energetic and forceful in pursuing creative ambitions. Children may be strong and athletic.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be significant difficulties with children including possible loss or illness, impulsive speculative losses leading to financial hardship and aggressive behavior in romantic relationships that drives partners away.

Mercury

House	9

If well placed
Mercury in the ninth house gives a philosophical intellect, success in higher learning and publishing and skill in religious and philosophical discourse. The native will be learned in multiple disciplines and will succeed as a teacher, scholar or author of philosophical and spiritual works.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be intellectual pride and arrogance, constantly changing philosophical beliefs that prevent deep conviction and difficulties with teachers and spiritual guides who find the native too argumentative and analytical.

Jupiter

House	7

If well placed
Jupiter in the seventh house gives an ideal, wise, spiritually inclined and deeply fortunate spouse. The native will prosper greatly through marriage, partnerships and public dealings. The marriage will be a source of genuine happiness and mutual growth.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be over-idealization of the partner that leads to deep disappointment when reality falls short, legal disputes in partnerships and a tendency to attract partners who are moralistic but impractical.

Venus

House	9

If well placed
Venus in the ninth house gives a fortunate, pleasurable and artistically rich life philosophy. The native will find spiritual fulfillment through beauty, music and the arts. Foreign travels will be deeply pleasurable and may lead to important romantic or artistic encounters.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be indulgent and self-serving spiritual beliefs that justify over-consumption and pleasure-seeking, difficulties with the father through romantic or financial excess and poor legal judgment.

Saturn

House	12

If well placed
Saturn in the twelfth house gives a deep and genuine spiritual life, success in renunciation and retreat, the capacity for profound meditation and possible moksha through sustained spiritual discipline and detachment from worldly desires.

If afflicted
If afflicted, Saturn in the twelfth house brings chronic and difficult confinement either through illness, isolation, imprisonment or hospitalization. There may be heavy financial expenditure through long-term suffering. Secret enemies cause persistent and difficult-to-counter harm.

Rahu

House	1

If well placed
Rahu in the first house gives an unconventional, charismatic and intensely ambitious personality with strong foreign connections and unusual talents that emerge unexpectedly. The native will rise in life through extraordinary and unorthodox means. He will have a hypnotic personality that draws others powerfully.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be chronic identity confusion, serious health issues related to the nervous system and brain, a tendency toward deception and an obsessive ambition that harms others. The native may be deeply dissatisfied despite outward success.

Ketu

House	7

If well placed
Ketu in the seventh house gives the potential for a deeply spiritual and karmically significant partnership where both partners grow profoundly through the relationship. Detachment from the ego of the self brings genuine spiritual union.

If afflicted
If afflicted, there may be serious and karmically burdened marriage difficulties, loss of the partner through separation, death or spiritual estrangement and chronic obstacles in establishing viable and lasting business partnerships.
